"UP WITH PEOPLE" IS HEADED FOR MISSOULA

Up With People, an exciting sing-out musical explosion of 150 college and high school students singing 28 original fast-paced songs is heading for Missoula next week.

Pegged for Feb. 15 and 16, the big show is being sponsored by the University of Montana Associated Students' Program Council. Partial casts will be sent to assemblies at Sentinel and Hellgate High Schools and the complete cast is slated for the UM Adams Field House Thursday (Feb. 16) at 8:15 p.m.

The Up With People story, as the late Walt Disney put it, "is the happiest, most hard-hitting way of saying what America is all about." It puts a new beat into the beat generation, representing a bid to involve an entire generation in a positive world action.

More than a performance though, the critics say, Up With People is an experience. Members of the cast will live on the UM campus and stay in residence halls and fraternity and sorority houses. They will eat with students. There may be impromptu sing-outs wherever members of the cast are found with students.

Tickets for the Thursday performance go on sale Wednesday at the Lodge desk. Reserved seats in the balcony are $2 and general admission is $1.50.

Up With People casts have toured four continents on the invitations of many government leaders across the world. They have "sung-out" live to millions of Americans and on television to many more.
